

Mr. Darryl S. Riddell

Hailing from West Helena, AR, Darryl Riddell holds the distinction of being the longest serving commissioner to the Arkansas Department of Aeronautics. He was appointed to the Department in 1981 by Governor Frank White and is still serving. During his tenure with the Department, Mr. Riddell has served on numerous committees and two times as Chairman.

Mr. Riddell's special aviation interest has been and still is agricultural aviation in Arkansas. Mr. Riddell, a pilot, is an aircraft dealer and president of Riddell Flying Service located at the Helena/West Helena Airport. Mr. Riddell is also an active member of the Arkansas Agricultural Aviation Association as well as the National Agricultural Aviation Association.